

HOUSE FUNCTION REPORT

Shravan and Siddharth house held their annual House Function on Tuesday, 18th April 2017 in the school auditorium amidst great splendour, zeal and mirth. The theme of the House Function was : Lok Tarang.

The programme began with the invocation dedicated to Lord Shiva. Shiva Strotam: the divine dance was applauded by one and all. The budding musicians of the houses enthralled the audience by their orchestral piece based on Bengali and Asamese folk songs. It was followed by a mellifluous group song based on a thought-provoking composition by Baba Bulleh Shah depicting the message that righteous actions and pure thoughts can make a human come out of darkness and take him closer to the divine creator. The soulful rendition made the audience sway to its lilting music. The play, 'Sadho Yeh Hai Murkhon Ka Des' was scripted and directed by Rajesh Tiwari. Based on a story by the illustrious writer Vijay Daan Detha, the play was highly appreciated for its content as well as commendable performance by the students.

Finally, an aesthetically choreographed folk dance performance representing states of Rajasthan and Punjab with its energetic and foot tapping music generated the feel of brotherhood and evinced a great applause from the audience. Dr. Shailendra Vyas, our chief guest is a scientist with Roche Diagnostics with ten year experience in the field of genomics, along with outstanding accomplishments in classical, vocal and instrumental music, theatre and fine arts. He lauded the children for their fine performance. The school Director Mr. R.C. Shekhar appreciated the students as well as teachers for their tireless efforts in making the function a great success. The programme concluded with the national anthem.
